

Friends of Brookline Public Library Annual Meeting

---

“Who Needs Movie Critics, Anyway?!”

Presentation by Daniel Kimmel,
June 9, 2010, 7 p.m.,
Brookline Public Library,
361 Washington St. Brookline, MA

Daniel M. Kimmel is past president of the Boston Society of Film Critics. His reviews appeared in the Worcester Telegram and Gazette from 1984-2009 and are now be found at Northshoremovies.net. He is local correspondent for Variety, the “Movie Maven” for the Jewish Advocate and teaches film at Suffolk University. Dan has written several books, including The Fourth Network, an award winner on the history of FOX TV, and I’ll Have What She’s Having: Behind the Scenes of the Great Romantic Comedies. He is currently working on a collection of his essays on science fiction movies.

There will be a short business meeting at 6:30 PM.

Dan will speak at 7:00 PM.